Calling all HBS or Anatomy teachers:

Anatomy Education Summer Camp for High School Educators
June 22-26, 2015 on the IUPUI campus
The goal of the AESC is to facilitate the life-long learning and professional development of science teachers, as it pertains to anatomical sciences and the teaching of biology-based disciplines. Participants will engage in a week-long intensive experience to learn human anatomy through cadaveric dissection. For further information and registration see: http://case.iu.edu/courses.html or contact Jim Brokaw at jbrokaw@iupui.edu or 317-274-1966.
